Use & Dissemination Restrictions

- Criminal History Record information is subject to the following use and dissemination restrictions. These restrictions are outlined in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 50.12.

Use & Dissemination Restrictions

- Both governmental and non-governmental entities authorized to submit fingerprints and receive FBI identification records must notify the individuals fingerprinted that the fingerprints will be used to check the Criminal History Records at the FBI.
- Identification records obtained from the FBI may be used solely for the purpose requested.

Use & Dissemination Restrictions

- Identification records obtained from the FBI may not be disseminated outside the receiving department, related agency or other authorized entity.
- If the information on the record is used to disqualify an applicant, the official making the determination of suitability for licensing or employment shall provide the applicant the opportunity to complete, or challenge the accuracy of, the information contained in the FBI identification record.

Use & Dissemination Restrictions

- The deciding official should not deny the license or employment based on the information in the record until the applicant has been afforded a reasonable time to correct or complete the information, or has declined to do so.
- An individual should be presumed not guilty of any charge/arrest for which there is no final disposition stated on the record or otherwise determined.

Use & Dissemination Restrictions

- If the applicant wishes to correct the record as it appears in the FBI's CJIS Division's Records System, the applicant should be advised the procedures to change, correct or update the record are set forth in Title 28, CFR, Section 16.34.
